12th November 2020

Dear Parents,

Next week marks the start of Anti-bullying week. The theme this year is "United Against Bullying".

To celebrate this week and raise the awareness with the children, we are asking them to come to school with odd socks on Monday 16th November. During the day, children will discuss why we are wearing odd socks and raise the awareness of standing up to bullying. In the PSHE lesson that week, children will focus on Anti-bullying activities to ensure they understand what bullying is and how we can stop it.

If you have any questions about the activities which will be going on in the class, please contact your child's teacher via Class Dojo.

Kind regards,

Jayne Tinto (PSHE Lead)
